- Negotiated hundreds of contracts and settlements for business and sports clients, including entire collective bargaining agreements.
- Direct negotiation of all contracts, draft preparation, combine and tryout preparation, marketing and endorsement services, media and interview training and marketing and endorsements deals, to ensure the athlete is fully protected and prepared for the world of professional athletics.
- Nationwide network of draft preparation experts for fitness, position coaching and combine preparation.
- Negotiates lowest advisor fees for all clients, including endorsement fees.
- Identifying new opportunities for clients on and off the playing field, extending to post-athletic career.
- Firm does not accept referral fees from other advisors so as to provide objective advice, not available from agents with financial conflicts of interest.
- Younger & Associates is a full service law firm handling a variety of legal matters. This allows clients to rest easy and concentrate on family and career, comforted by this umbrella of protection.

CAREER MANAGEMENT FIRM

Our firm is committed to providing today's professional athlete with the maximum professional security possible. Our mission sets us apart from other firms because our sole priority is to protect the athlete, not use the athlete as a profit generating tool. At Younger & Associates, we act as the "eyes and ears" ensuring that all sport agent and other professional advisor decisions are made with the athletes' best interest in mind.

FULL SERVICE LAW FIRM FOR ATHLETES & COACHES

- Younger & Associates practices law with emphasis on sports representation, civil and business litigation, employment law matters, and human resource for our business clients throughout the state of California.
- The Civil Litigation department is headed by the Firm's Managing Attorney Timothy M. Younger, who began his career with the renowned law firm of O'Melveny and Myers in Los Angeles.
- Mr. Younger has distinguished himself through his innovation and practice before the bench, as well as at the negotiation table. He was honored as a Southern California Super Lawyer, by Southern California Superior Lawyers magazine, and recognized as one of "The Top Lawyers" in Inland Empire magazine. He is a recognized member of the "Nation's Top One Percent" of Attorneys by the National Association of Distinguished Counsel.
- The success of the Rancho Cucamonga, Corona and High Desert offices is based in large measure on our ability to understand our clients' needs. Included with our expanding client list are companies such as: Verizon, Crawford & Company, The California State University, Coldwell Bank Commercial, B & B Plastics, Inc., Cerenzia Foods, Inc. and Wholesale Capital Corporation.
- Mr. Younger has lectured both at the local and national level on issues such as wrongful termination, harassment in the work place and retaliation, and has been retained to conduct sensitive workplace investigations. In addition to his law practice, Mr. Younger served as General Counsel, Senior Vice-President and President for the Rancho Cucamonga Chamber of Commerce and served previously as Judge Pro Tem for Small Claims Court in San Bernardino County.
- Upon demonstrating continued excellence in his practice and in combination with his civic contributions, Mr. Younger was named Small Business Person of the Year for 2000 by the City of Rancho Cucamonga and was so acknowledged by county, state and federal officials.
- Younger & Associates prides itself on ethics, professionalism and performance.
- For our sports practice, we associate with and collaborate with Marvin Demoff, Esq., whose clients have included, John Elway, Dan Marino, Tim Brown, Kyle Long, Chris Long, Chad Greenway, Junior Seau, Troy Polamalu, Coach Jeff Fisher, Coach Mike Zimmer and broadcasters Joe Buck and Al Michaels.
